There's . many a man I've known in my day,
Who lived just to publish his whole life away;
Like a drunkard his wine, or a fiend his codfiene,
A fan must have lust for the lure of the Zine.

-Byron

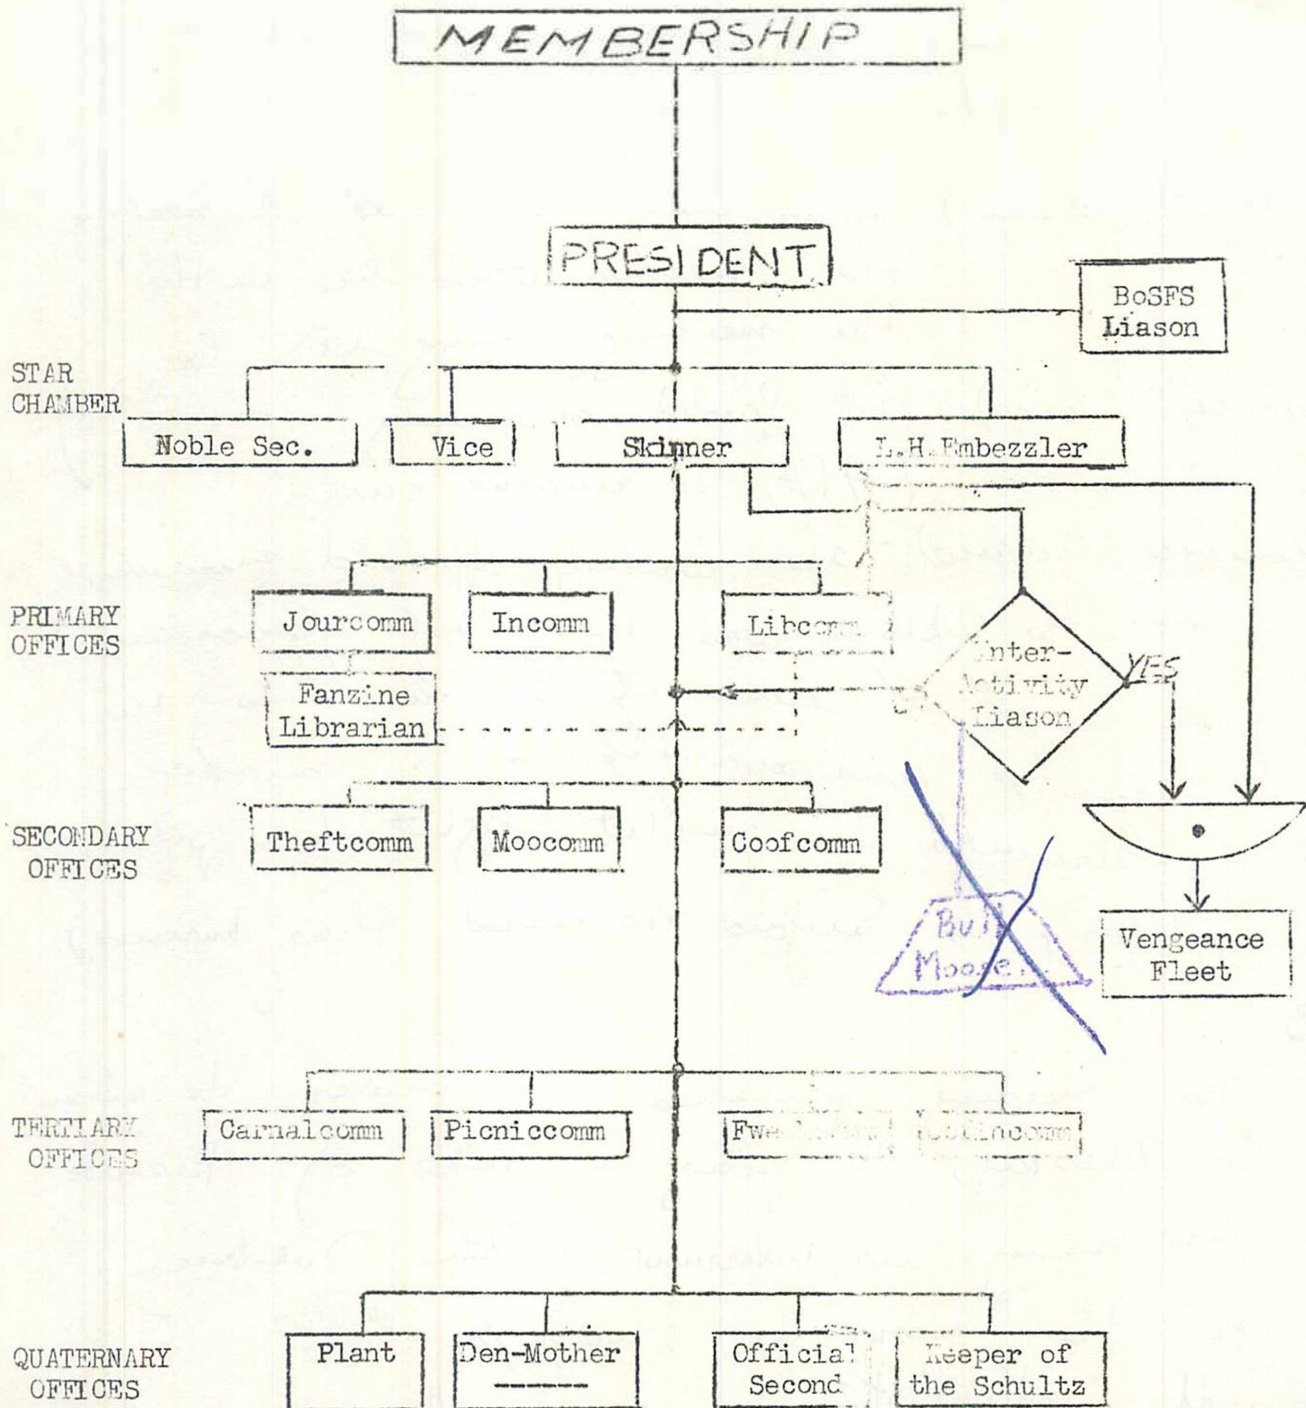

Since we have not heard from you in some time, we are dropping your name from our mailing list.

If you still wish to continue receiving T<sup>Z</sup>, please indicate your existence in some way: write a letter, a postcard, a telegram; make a phone call; send a messenger by speeding aardvark, passenger turtle, or occant; drop them from the sky; spell them out in flaming letters over the great dome; but do something.

If, lacking all other sources of continuing to receive T<sup>Z</sup>, you find yourself walled into a corner, trapped, unable to take any other course of action, try BRIBERY. Our editors, who will do many things for a quarter, will, just for You, send T<sup>Z</sup> ($254/issue) to your very own home, in a plain brown envelope marked "SEX BOOKS."

So don't delay! If you want each of our four annual issues each year, hurry to your nearest message center and do something to deserve them!
