COLOPHON

THE WHOLE FANZINE CATALOG #18/19 (March, 1981) is edited by Brian Earl Brown, 16711 Burt Rd. #207, Detroit, MI 48219. And is published by the Metro Detroit Science Fiction Society, 16711 Burt Rd. #207, Detroit, MI. 48219. WoFan is a roughly quarterly catalog of recently published fanzines. Copyright 1981 by Brian Earl Brown. Remaining rights re-assigned to the contributors.

CLUBZINES

It's not like this fanzine is really late, even tho this issue should have been mailed out today instead of having its first page typed. If I were a Dick Gels or Andy Porter or even a Charlie (no relation) Brown who do fanzines for a living, matters like keeping to a deadline would be much more important. But I work for a living and do fanzines in the evening -- when I have the time and energy. Nor is Wofan the only zine that I work on. So while this issue appears to be a bit late and future issue may appear late, I will continue to call this a quarterly fanzine since, all things considered, its closer to that than any thing else. (Meanwhile I snarl at such organized faneds like Marty Cantor who publish their quarterly zines ahead of schedule.)

The organization of this issue is into Clubzines, Newszines and Genzines by nation, an organization I've used before. There will be one alphabetized list for each category since this issue will be done in one great marathon instead of the fits and starts of the last couple issues. Zines arriving after today will be reviewed in the next issue.

There are three types of zines published by clubs. First are the general-interest zines that happen to be published by a club. Zines like Janus/Aurora, Seldon's Plan and Rune fit into this category and are reviewed in the genzine section. Then there are the newsletter-like zines that list time and place of the next meeting and like purely local matter. Finally there are the publications that mix both local news with articles and features and often have an appeal to people outside the immediate club. Zines like Chat and Shangri L'Affaires fit into this category.

THE ALPHA CENTURA COMMUNICATOR #56 (October, 1980)

THE ALPHA CENTURA COMMUNICATOR #57 (November, 1980)

THE ALPHA CENTURA COMMUNICATOR #58 (December, 1980)

THE ALPHA CENTURA COMMUNICATOR #59 (January, 1981)

Eleen Haas, editor. 415 Mesilla SE, Albuquerque, N.M. 87131. 8 pages reduced offset, half-legal size. Available for (I assume) the usual.

Newsletter for a Star Trek oriented club. Monthly.

AMVIL 13 (November-December, 1980)

Jim Gilpatrick, editor. P O Box 57031, Birmingham, AL 35259. 22 pages offset. Available for the usual or 6 for 32.

Clubzine for the Birmingham club. Jim Gilpatrick writes against an Atlanta in '86 bid, Wade Gilbreath's "Something" is certainly something. Plus reviews (book and fanzine) and locs. A good zine. Bimonthly.

ATARANTES #40 (October, 1980)

ATARANTES #41 (November, 1980)

Cliff Biggers, editor. 6045 Summitwood Dr., Kenneshaw, GA 30144, 12 pages mimeo, small type. Available for the usual or 35¢. Monthly.

Clubzine for the Atlanta club. Either the club has been sucked into a black hole or the post office has been eating copies of this zine again. A lot of fine artwork, Cliff writing against an Atlanta worldcon bid, the usual features and Brad Linaweaver on great bnd films.

BATON ROUGE SCIENCE FICTION LEAGUE NEWSLETTER #10 (December/January, 1981)

J.R. Madden, editor. c/o P O Box 18610-A, University Stn., Baton Rouge, LA 70803. 20 pages xerox. Available for the usual or 4/41.

Newsletter for the Baton Rouge club. Has the usual features and a send-up of Carl Sagan.

BCSFAZINE 88 (October, 1980)

Fran Skene, editor. P O Box 35577 Stn E., Vancouver, B.C. v6m 4g9 Canada. 8 pages mimeo. Available to members only but trades can be arranged. Out of province membership $6/year.

Newsletter for the Vancouver club. Chatty & pleasant but I understand that this was Fran's last issue as editor.

CHAT #37 (October, 1980)

CHAT #38 (November, 1980)

CHAT #39 (December, 1980)

Dick & Nicki Lynch, editors. 4207 Davis Ln, Chattanooga, TN 37416. #37-20 pages; #38-12 pages; #39- 18 pages. Mimeo. Available for 35¢ or the usual.

Clubzine for the Chattanooga club. My favorite clubzine, chatty with lots of great art, the usual features and a lively lettercol. Unfortunately #39 notes that CHAT is going bimonthly with the next issue.

CUSFuSSing #27 (October 2, 1980)

CUSFuSSing #28 (November 14, 1980)

Charles Seelig, 317 Ferris Booth Hall, Columbia University, New York, NY 10027. #27 - 24 pages; #28 - 14 pages, mimeo. Available for the usual or 20¢.

Clubzine from the Columbia University group. Varies in content. #27 has lots of letters and a Noreascon II report. #28 features a gag quiz on STAR TREK.

DE PROFUNDIS #122

Ken Rowand, editor. 11513 Burbank Blvd., Hollywood, CA 91601. 2 pages xerox. Available for some trades or $5/year. Purportedly monthly.

Newsletter from LASFS, Inc. Dry.

FORERUNNER Vol 3 #283 (August, 1980)

Jack R. Herman, editor. 1/67 Fletcher St., Bondi. 2026 Australia. 22 pages mimeo, A4. Available for the usual or 12/$3.

Clubzine for the Sydney Australia club. Fanzine and book reviews, letters and a Wellcon B conreport. A substantial zine.

FREQUENT INACCURACY #2 (November 28, 1980)

David K. M. Klaus, #38½ Diamond St., Arcadia, CA 91006. 2 pages ditto. Available for ?.

Newsletter for the Other Valley SF Association. The 'Other Valley' is apparently in the LA area. Listings of meetings.

KSFF JOURNAL (November, 1980)

Bob Garger, editor, 4900 Jonquil Ln., Knoxville, TN 37919. 4 pages mimeo. Available for ?

Newsletter for the Knoxville Science Fantasy Federation.

MEMPISH 39 (October, 1980)

MEMPISH 40

MEMPHEN 41

MEMPHEN 42

Greg Bridges, editor. 140 Eastview Dr., Memphis, TN 38111. #39- 2 pages mimeo. #40 - 8 pages digest-sized. Mimeo. #41 & 42 - 4 pages digest mimeo. Available for the usual.

Newsletter of the Mid-South Fantasy Association. Monthly.

THE NATIONAL FANTASY FAN Vol 40 #4 (August, 1980)

THE NATIONAL FANTASY FAN Vol 40 #5 (October, 1980)

Owen K. Laurion, editor. 6301 Central NE, Albuquerque, N.M. 87131. 36 pages offset, reduced type, half-legal size. Available to NSF members only. Er- #4 has 36 pages #5 has 22 pages same format. For membership, write Janie Lamb, Rte 2 Box 272, Heiskell, TN 37754. Bimonthly.

The news and business publication of the National Fantasy Fan Federation. The NSF tries to provide something for everyone, and do a pretty good job of it.

NEOLOGY Vol 5 #4/5 (Fall, 1980)

Robert Runte, editor. P O Box 4071, Edmonton, Alta., t6e 4s8 Canada. 24 pages mimeo. Available for the usual or 75c.

Clubzine for the Edmonton Science Fiction and Comic Art Society. Meaty zine with its standout feature being its regular survey of Canadian fandom. In this issue Runte announces he'll leave NEOLOGY after the next issue to devote time to "New Canadian Fandom."

NEW VARIANT #1

Neil Harris, editor. 10902B Nandine Ct., Philadelphia, PA 19116. 26 pages mimeo plus offset cover. Available for 75c.

Clubzine for the Philadelphia Science Fiction Society. Perhaps I err in not considering this a genzine. Articles on the old "Variant" clubzine, and SF music, a couple stories and a good strip from Heavy Metal artist Matt Howarth. Justified columns but weak printing.

THE SECOND OSFIC UNCONSTITUTIONAL NEWSLETTER (October 19, 1980)

ANOTHER UNOFFICIAL OSFIC NEWSLETTER (November, 1980)

THE UNNAMED OSFIC NEWSLETTER (December, 1980)

Bob Webber, editor. 4-6 Bradbrook Rd., Toronto, Ont. m8z 5v3 Canada. (Oct.) - 1 page xerox. Not edited by Webber. (Nov.) - 8 pages xerox, also not edited by Webber. (Dec.) - 6 pages mimeo, edited by Webber, who will, (presumably) be editor for a while. Newsletter for the Ontario Science Fiction Club, the Toronto club.

PULSAR 27

Sam Butler, editor of the month, P O Box 14727, Portland, Ore. 97214. 12 pages xerox. Available for the usual (?) or 35c. Monthly.

Newsletter for the Portland Science Fiction Society. Fairly newsy with some involvement with Marion Zimmer Bradley fandom.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN FAN #3 (September, 1980)

Fred Cleaver, editor., 611 --19th St., Boulder, Colo 80302. 6 pages offset. Available for the usual or $2/4.

Newsletter for the Rocky Mountain Fan Federation, which is an organization trying to unite fans in the Rocky's. News and reviews.

NEWSZINES

Newszines are those publications that provide information of various sorts useful to fans. WoFan falls into this category of Newszine.

ANSIBLE 13 (November, 1980)

ANSIBLE 14 (December, 1980)

David Langford, 22 Northumberland Ave., Reading, Berks., rg2 7pw England. 4 pages quarto. (2 reduced type offset, 2 mimeo.) Available for 4/60p (UK) 5/61 elsewhere.

News from the isles of Great Britain. Dave's breezy style makes Ansible enjoyable reading.

CONACS 6 (October 1, 1980)

M. David Johnson, P O Box 485, Glenview, IL 60025. 10 pages offset, regular and reduced print. Available for 50¢.

A Convention Activities newsletter. This is the last of the 'free' issues. Conacs 7 will be found in the genzine section. This ish contains a bunch on Noreascon and an extensive listing of conventions. The listings are marred by Johnson's division of the US into 7 zones and lumping everything else into an 8th division. Half of Southern fandom has been lumped in with other regions, while Vancouver or Toronto conventions get lumped with British and Australian cons, as if Torontonians don't show up at most Midwest cons. Still a conventions equivalent to Wofan would be a welcome addition. I would hope that CONACS would be that zine.

DNQ 32 (November 8, 1980)

Editors: Victoria Vayne, P O Box 156 Stn D., Toronto, Ont M5p 3j8 and Taral Wayne MacDonald, 1812-415 Willowdale Ave., Willowdale, Ont. M2n 5b4 Canada. 12 pages mimeo. Available for 5/32 or trades (to both editors.)

Penultimate issue of a highly enjoyable newszine. This is a post-worldcon zine, but not the worldcon you expected. All a hoax by Taral, tho the thought of Bruce Pelz microfiching old fanzines is one I'd like to see happen. An interesting issue.

DUFF NEWSLETTER #5 (December, 1980)

Ken Fletcher, 341 E. 19th St., Minneapolis, MN 55404. 2 pages mimeo. Available for support for DUFF.

The Down Under Fan Fund has Joyce Scrivner and Jon Singer standing for a trip to the 1981 Australian National Convention. The voting deadline has just passed. I may have the results by presstime.

FANTASY NEWSLETTER 30 (November, 1980)

FANTASY NEWSLETTER 31 (December, 1980)

FANTASY NEWSLETTER 32 (January, 1981)

FANTASY NEWSLETTER 33 (February, 1981)

Paul Allen, P O Box 1704, Rochester, NY 14604. 32 pages offset, reduced type (except #31 - 36 pages.) Available for $1.95 $15/year; $29/year (air) Monthly.

Handsomely produced zine listing the month's scheduled book releases from both pro and semi-pro publishers. Plus alternating columns from Karl Edward Wagner and Fritz Leiber, interviews, movie reviews and book reviews.

FILE 770 #23 (November 30, 1980)

Mike Glycer, 14974 Osceola St., Sylmar, CA 91342. 12 pages mimeo (offset cover) Available for 4/32 1/31 airmail. Not as regular as hoped.

The lead article is marred by unsubstantiated rumors regarding Susan Wood's death. Also Hugu results, large listing of upcoming conventions and like material. In the absence of DNQ, the only fannish newszine we have.

MINUTES OF THE 1980 WSFS Business Meeting.

George Flynn, secretary. Noreascon II, P O Box 46, MIT Branch, Cambridge; MA 02139. 12 pages offset, Available for ?

What it says. Trust NESFA to actually get one printed.

OTHERGATES #1 (Winter, 1980)

Millea Kenin, 1025 -55th St., Oakland, CA 94603. 12 pages offset. Available for $2.

This is a magazine listing places where writers and artists may submit their material. The titles listed run the gamut from comiczine to semi-pro to personalzines. This is a difficult zine to review mostly because I think the people it is addressing are not the people I address here in MoFan. 'Othergates' seems to be for people who want to sell their stuff to publishers. The fans I address are not here for the money. Yet I feel that 'Othergates' is not adequately helping its presumed audience by its indiscriminate listing of zines or its high, $2 price. Still I have almost no listings of the fiction semi-pro field and Othergates lists many such zines.

THE POETRY AND FICTION MAGAZINE ASSOCIATION INFO SHEET #1, 2,3,4, & 5.

Ken Mann, 22 Pennethorne Rd., Peckham, London SE7 5Tq. 4 pages mimeo A4, Available for ? . I guess free to writers, poets and editors.

An effort to bring British fiction and avant garde magazines together.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN OYSTERS #1(October, 1980)

Rocky Mountain Oysters #2(December, 1980)

Chris Mills, P O Box 6074, Boulder, Colo 80306. #1 -3 pages reduced offset. #2 - 1 page reduced offset. Available for locs or 50c.

News from Denvention II, the 1981 worldcon. To date mostly minutes from their business meetings.

SCIENCE FICTION CHRONICLE Vol 2 #2 (November, 1980)

SCIENCE FICTION CHRONICLE Vol 2 #3 (December, 1980)

SCIENCE FICTION CHRONICLE Vol 2 #4 (January, 1981)

SCIENCE FICTION CHRONICLE Vol 2 #5 (February, 1981)

Andrew Porter, P O Box 4175, New York, NY 10163. #2 -16 pg; #3 -16 pg; #4 - 20 pg; #5 16 pages offset, small, set type. Available for $1.25.

Writing and publishing news, con listings, some book reviews by Don D'Amassa and a market report in Vol 2 # 4. #5 has a detailed breakdown of the Hugo ballot, NESFA having released the votes. Interesting, Ed Fer- man led during the first two rounds of ballot-counting, falling slightly behind Scithers with the Schmidt ballots were re-distributed. Geis also had more 1st place votes but fell behind when Langford's votes were re-distributed. And in the Gandalf awards, it's interesting that Bradley's fan shifted en masse behind McCaffery and Vance fans shifted to Zelazny, hiking Zelazny from third to second place. And Future Focus received 21 nominations for the Hugo Fanzine award. You've got a lot of friends, Roger.

TAFF NEWS.

Terry Hughes, 6205 Wilson Blvd. #102, Falls Church, VA 22044. 2 pages mimeo. Available to supporters of TAFF.

Announces that Stu Shiffman will be going to the 1981 Eastercon in England. Administrators for the Trans-Atlantic Fan Fund are now Stu Shiffman, 19 Broadway Terrace #10, New York, NY 10040 and Dave Langford, 22 Northumberland Ave., Reading, Berks., RG2 7PW, England. The 1982 race will send a British fan to the worldcon in Chicago.

At times when it's late at night and I've been typing pages for hours on end and my ears are beginning to ring from the pounding of the keys that I reflect with lust on an ad in SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN for a pocket calculator with a built in typer. A noiseless keyboard. sigh

You really should get the ballot results that Andy reprinted (I'm sure he could use the money). The results are really fascinating, especially as the votes shift, and he lists all the nominees in all the categories, even those that didn't make the original cut-off.

GENZINES AUSTRALIA

"FDIAWOL: FIRST DRAFT IS A WAY OF LIFE" ✓

ANKH #6 (July, 1980)

ANKH #7 (September, 1980)

Seth Lockwood, 19 Coleby St.,
Balcatta, WA 6021 Australia. 20 pages mimeo A4. Available for the usual.

Genzine with a mix of material.
Nice "On Fanzine Fandom in the Middle Ages" satire, Swancon report.
Also some short stories.

AUSSIECON FIFTH ANNIVERSARY MEM-ORIAL FANZINE.

Jean Weber, 13 Myall St.,
O'Connor, ACT 2601 Australia.
40 pages mimeo A4. Available for $2 or trade.

Aussiecon in 1975 was the first convention a lot of Australian fans ever went to. Jean has collected thoughts and reminiscences about that con from 14 attendees. Excellent zine. Recommended.

DUOYANT STRUDEL #1 (November, 1980)

Michael Schaper, 211 Preston Point Rd., Bicton, WA 6157 Australia. 4 pages mimeo A4. Available for whim.

An apozine with a directory of Western Australian fans.

CRABAPPLE #16 (August, 1980)

Ken Ozanne, 42 Meek's Crescent, Faulconbridge, NSW 2776 Australia.
15 pages quarto mimeo small type. Available for the usual or 75c. Air-mail extra.

A very fine personalzine with a thoughtful review of Warhoon 20.
Recommended.

THE CYGNUS CHRONICLER Vol 2 #2 (March, 1980)

THE CYGNUS CHRONICLER Vol 2 #3 (June, 1980)

Neville J. Angrove, P O box 770, Canberra City, ACT 2601 Australia.
12 pages small print, typeset. offset. Available for 4/52A.

A semi-pro zine, I gather, with one or two short stories per quarterly issue and some book reviews. Attractive covers. Very professional looking.

THE ECHO BEACH QUARTERLY FOUR FANZINE SUPPLEMENT

Marc Ortlieb, 70 Hamblynn Rd., Elizabeth Downs, SA 5113 Australia.
10 pages mimeo A4. Available for trades or 30c.

Formerly the West of Minster's Library (see below) Fanzine reviews much like these. Plus reviews of the Australian apas, a neat bit on zine phobia and a distribution chart of first letters of fanzine titles.
Marc's a fanoholic. He should stand for Duff.

GRYFFIN #2 (August, 1980)

Mike Schaper, 211 Preston Point Rd., Bicton, WA 6157 Australia. 12 pages mimeo A4. Available for the usual.

Genzine. Rather liked the bcover: "How to Ruin Yourself Fannishly."

THE MENTOR #26 (August, 1980)

THE MENTOR #28 (December, 1980)

Ron L. Clarke, 6 Bellevue Rd., Faulconbridge, NSW 2776, Australia. #26 - 32 pgs. #28 - 26 pgs. Mimeo. quarto. Available for the usual. Mail should be sent to: P O Box C377, Clarence St., Sydney 2000. Fanzines to Faulconbridge.

I didn't realize so many fans lived in Faulconbridge. I'd always had the idea it was some small out of the way community where Eric Lindsay hung out at. Currently it's a fanzine pubbing mecca. Except what's Eric doing, eh? Playing with his new computer?

The Mentor is a genzine of eclectic material. Vol Holesworth is serializing his history of Australian fandom and Ron discusses fanzines 1972-1979. There's an article by John Alderson who seems to write five controversial ideas a day, reviews and such fill out the issue.

#28 has a really nice cover by Michael McGann; a fun, silly story by Michael Newton; more fan history, A. Bertram Chandler on researching his Ned Kelly novel and such. I see that Ron will take $1 for 1 sample issue. Send him one.

Q36C (July, 1980)

Q36D (September, 1980)

Marc Ortlieb, 70 Hamblynn Rd., Elizabeth Downs, S.A. 5113, Australia. "C" - 40 pg; "D" - 30 pages mimeo A4. Available for the usual

And there's still one more zine of Marc's to list. The title is, so say the least different. Personally I still prefer "Minador." It's an excellent genzine from one of the best writers in Australia. "C" opens with a fine piece on drug influences in Lewis Carroll, dips with an overly long review of THE BLACK HOLE (but any review would be overly long), Marc matters interestingly about various conventions and ends with John Alderson on Icelandic sagas. Scattered through out the zine are Triffid comic strips, capped by a two page Eric, "Flash Triffid. Triffids are the work of John Packer, a very clever writer and a decent cartoonish. Packer is very prolific, and good enough to get away with it. What I'd like to see is a collection of Packer's strips.

"D" features a parody of Cordwainer Smith ("War no. 92"^{XCS}) that suffers from excesses of style but otherwise is intelligently and cleverly done. And ends with one of the few pun-punchlines that work. Unfortunately it's followed by "In Defence of the Horrid Pun." John Packer contributes a 2-page "Triff the Barbarian" strip and Marc reveals the fascism underlying the robot stories of Isaac Asimov (with tongue in cheek.) Not previously mentioned is Marc good use of two color mimeography and excellent, casual layout. Recommended.

RHUGARB 9 (September, 1980)

John Fox, P O Box 129, Lakemba, NSW 2195, Australia. 18 pages mimeo A4. Available for the usual or 75c. Promised bimonthly.

Another apazine that's branching out into genzine with two non-identical verisons of this number. There're a couple reviews and a couple stories.

THE SPACE WASTREL #3 (August, 1980)

Editors: Mr Warner, Flat 9 Cara Maria, Shenton St., Geraldton 6530 Australia & Mr Loney, St Columbia College, Stirling Hwy, Nedlands 6009, Australia. 28 pages mimeo A4. Available for the usual (two copies of your zine in trade) or $1.

Wastrel is getting more like an ordinary fanzine everyday (gasp "horrors") with editorials, a local and even fanzine reviews - other people's reviews of Wastrel. Plus the same stange little stories and vignettes about the AFICorps.

pg 10 / Australia

WAHF-FULL 4 (March/April 1980)

Jack R. Herman, 1/67 Fletcher St., Bondi, NSW 2926 Australia. 32 pages mimeo. A4. Available for the usual or $3/4.

Interesting that most Australian fanzines are still printed by mimeo while most US fanzines are printed by some other method (xerox or cheap offset.) This issue features Jack in a long editorial, mostly recounting a recent convention, lots of letters and a thoughtful article from Tony Strelkov. Something of a catch-up issue.

THE WEST OF MINSTER'S LIBRARY 5 (July, 1980)

Marc Ortlieb, 70 Hamblynn Rd., Elizabeth Downs, SA 5113, Australia. 10 pages mimeo A4. Available for trade or 30¢.

Fanzine reviews. Quite a few Australian zines that I don't get.

John Zube, 7 Oxley St., Berrima, NSW 2577.

John sent a handfil of flyers for his libertarian publications and microfiching. John is a big booster of fiching , a reduction process in which up to 98 pages of text are photographed on to a 4 by 6 card. The process, he says, is cheap. His publications are selling for 60¢ locally and he's asking $25 from anyone wanting to sponsor a fiche. Eric Lindsay is fiching his zines. I doubt that fiching will be the way of the future, but it would be nice to see some of the great old zines fiched so they'd be cheaply available. Write John if you're interested either in fiching or libertarianism.

BRITAIN

ERG 72 (October, 1980)

Terry Jeeves, 230 Bannerdale Rd., Sheffield S11 9FE England. 22 pages mimeo. Available for 3/£2. Quarterly.

Now in its 22nd year of publication! Amazing and equally amazing is the cover, by Jim Cawthorne. It's hand-cut on stencil but has the density of offset... and it's an 18 year old stencil. The drawing illustrates a scene from LotR. This is sort of an all home computers issue with articles by Ralph Robert and Terry, also videotape movies are discussed by Alan Burns and Terry. Letters and capsule reviews fill out the issue.

GROSS ENCOUNTERS 7

GROSS ENCOUNTERS 8 (August 22, 1980)

Alan Dorey, 20 Hermitage Woods Cres., St John's, Woking, Surrey GU21 1UE, England. 16 pages mimeo A4 with xerox covers. Available for ... its britfaanish not to say.

Excellent personalzines. Alan natters about the long absence of this zine, prints Simon Dunsley's diatribe against lager drinkers, then takes over again for a long, anecdotal, slightly ~~insulting~~ ribbing Albacon report. In #8 Ian Maule gets to write about the time he was required to read pornography in the line of duty as a customs officer. Alan writes about more cons attended(parodying Barry Malzberg, sports and drinking, and other matters in a style like Dave Langford's witty, imaginative narrations. Really fine writing. Highly Recommended.

NABU 10

Ian & Janice Maule, 5 Beaconfield Rd., New Malden, Surrey KT3 3HY England. 38 pages mimeo Quarto. Available for ... they don't say, either.

A fine example of the genzine. Ian remembers his first ten years as a fan (deja vu it reads almost like my introduction into fandom!). Chris Evans contributes an excellent piece about the nature of radicals and how Joseph Nicholas is already part of the old wave. Chris Priest remembers Erector sets, electric trains and sex. And Joseph Nicholas, undaunted by Kev Smith's "How to Write like Joseph Nicholas" continues his Kill the Fuckers fanzine reviews. I tended to break into snickers over Joseph's many self-contradictions. All told an excellent zine, with what passes in British zines for advanced graphics. Recommended.

NAPALM IN THE MORNING 2

Joseph Nicholas, Rm 9, 94 St. George's Square, Pimlico, London SW1Y 3QY, England. 10 pages mimeo A4., Available: yes.

Speak of the devil. A fine personalzine; Joseph's life as a bureaucrat (and having to deal with the public ick) and letters from many interesting people.

OGCELOT 4 (November, 1980)

Editors: Simon Ounsley, 13a Cardigan Rd., Headingley, Leeds 6 and Graham James, 12 Fearnville Terr., Oakwood, Leeds LS8 3DU England. 20 pages mimeo A4. Available for trades to both editors, advise on how to rid fandom of Ken Mann oruwhim.

I'm not sure what to say. This is a good zine, with interesting material; nattering from Simon and Graham, Michael Ashley, David Pringle and the letterbacks on topics not easily characterized. Fannish anecdotal nattering.

SCOTTISHE 80

Ethel Lindsay, 69 Barry Rd., Carnoustie, Angus DD7 7QQ, Scotland. 22 pages mimeo A4. Available for $1 or trade. 3 to the last issue.

A quiet, pleasant zine with fanzine and book reviews, letters and an enjoyable editorial from Ethel. Arthur Thomson (ATom) provides all the art, and it's a lot. One hopes that when Ethel retires Scottishe, ATom won't retire from fanart.

SF HORIZONS 3

Keith & Rosemary Walker, 6 Vine St., Greaves, Lancaster, Lancs., LA1 4DF, England. 4 1/2 pages mimeo A4. Available for ?

Article, "Selecting material for Teaching SF Course."

SMALL FRIENDLY DOG 19 (August 26, 1980)

Skel & Cas Skelton, 25 Rowland Close, Offerton, Stockport, Cheshire SK2 5NU England. 50 pages mimeo A5. Available for Harvey's Bristol Creme, good puns on the initials SFD and other possibilities.

This issue the initials stand for "Stamp out Flatulent Dinosaurs." (?) This is a highly enjoyable mixture of letters, replies and editorial nattering from one of the masters. Skel and his friends talk about dinosaurs, mystery novels, TV, vibrators, even gasp science fiction. One of my favorite zines. Highly recommended.

THE USUAL 2 (October 31, 1980)

Editors: Chris Lewis, 4 Southfield Rd., High Wycombe, England and Nic Howard, 5 Grays Ln., Downley, High Wycombe, England. 13 pages mimeo.

A4. Available for ,one would assume, "The usual."

Chris talks about the second series of Hitchhiker, Nictalks about poetry and finally Chris tells tales of Noresecon.

THE BIMONTHLY MONTHLY (see THE MONTHLY MONTHLY)

COMPOUND FRACTURE 2 (August 31, 1980)

Georges Gigures, 8833-92 St., Edmonton, Alba. Canada t6c 3p9. 32 pages mimeo with offset covers. Available for the usual.

A pleasant genzine with a wide variety of material. Most interesting is a piece by Keith Fenske on the cruel life lead by a winking cursor. Other articles discuss music, the theater, fans and science fiction.

DOPPLEGANGERS #2 (February 1, 1980)

DOPPLEGANGERS #3 (September 5, 1980)

DOPPLEGANGERS #4 (November 30, 1980)

Neil Kaden, #3- 1309 HENRY Farm Dr., Ottawa, Ont. k2c 4h7 Canada.

#2 - 1 pg.; #3 - 3 pages.; #4 - 14 pages. #3 was computer printed. #4 was xeroxed from a computer-set master. Available for the usual.

A personalzine with the usual contents, nattering, books read, cons attended, a short story.

LOVE MAKES THE WORLD GO AWRY #4 (September, 1980)

Fran Sken, 207 West 21st Ave., Vancouver, B.C. Canada v5y 2E4. 18 pages 18 pages offset. Available for the usual or 4/32.

Published a bit after the listed date since with this came a xerox of Susan Wood's obituary. A personalzine with 6 pages of Fran talking about her life and its ups and downs, and 12 pages of letters discussing (mostly) love. One of the better personalzine being done, with some nice art. And as with so many successful personalzines, Fran bids to be lost in the deluge of fine letters. I hope Fran will keep more room for herself in the next issue.

THE MONTHLY MONTHLY 11 (August, 1980)

THE MONTHLY MONTHLY 12 (September, 1980)

(Rosanne Charest)

THE BIMONTHLY MONTHLY 13 (October, 1980)

(Christine Kulyk)

THE BIMONTHLY MONTHLY 14 (December-January, 1981)

(David Vereschagin)

The Gang of Four, c/o Runte, 10957- 88 Ave., Edmonton, Alba., t6g 0y9 Canada. #11- 20 pgs; #12 - 20 pgs; #13 - 28 pgs; #14 - 34 pgs. Mimeo with offset covers.

Where to begin. The best thing in #11 was a letter from Ron Runte, Robert's brother, which shows that fans don't have a monopoly on weirdness. Less successful is Christine Kulyk's "Island of Dr. Smofeau" a somewhat forced satire of trufoanishness.

In #12 Rosanne Charest writes about some of the seamier aspects of Canadian history and the need to tolerate a multiplicity of cultures. Jeanne Gomoll reviews MOTHERLINES, Bill Beard reviews movies as he does in most every issue (A war movie, the Big Red One.) Doug Barbour reviews books in brief paragraphs and Dave Vereschagin writes about a trip to a punk bar.

#13 marks a big change for the Edmonton crew. After doing one year as a monthly, they've switched it a larger-sized bimonthly zine. Oddly, #13 doesn't reflect the ability of a larger zine to contain more interesting material than the smaller TM² did. There is an interesting 4 page cover, post-modernism explained from Vereschagin, and a Dieter's Guide to Weightloss through Fanac by Diane Walton-LeBlanc (It's thrilling to realize that I have such great power over the weight of fans everywhere. ~~with~~ one issue of WoFan, obesity could be eliminated in fandom!) And there's an interesting article on Fandom in Yugoslavia but on the whole this issue is just taken up with longer column from Barbour and Beard, columns I've considered dull and boring.

#14 is much more interesting with Vereschagin writing about walks at night, Steve George on "Ye Olde Lust Shoppe", Tony Strelkov on living a foretaste of things to come, longer and better book reviews from Doug Barbour, letters, and fanzine reviews from Christine Kulyk. Christine succeeds in making sure that WoFan remains a thankless task, displays a certain subjectivity herself and clearly places a "criticism not wanted" sign in front of the Gang of Four Offices. Dave's new style of title headings doesn't impress me.

NIGHTWINDS #3

Peter Roberts, P O Box 1442, Guelph, Ont., Canada n1h 6n9. 26 pages mimeo and offset. Available for the usual or $1.50/

A disorganized clubzine. Contents includes a survey of British SF authors (with many inaccuracies, i.e. A.B. Chandler is listed. He's Australian.) A Galaxy Novels checklist, A Monarch novels checklist, how to cook a cat, an appreciation of Robert Sheckley and letters.

A MARCH TO THE BEAT OF A RED SHIFT DRUM 7 (March, 1980)

Taral Wayne MacDonald, 1812-415 Willowdale Ave., Willowdale, Ont. Canada m2h 5b4. 22 pages mimeo, Available for the usual.

A sort of '42' personalzine -- it covers everything, life, death, the meaning of the universe. Taral talks about his interest in media-building as man and boy, art (with remembrances of cartoonist Percy Crosby and ends with a conversation with a witch who turns him into a fanzine/ Naturally there's art by Taral, some of it very fine.

SIGH#1

Michael Vernon Mackay, Box 170763, University of Guelph, Guelph, Ont. n1g 2w1. Canada . 20 pages mimeo with offset covers. Available for the usual or $1.

A personalzine from one of the more interesting fan writers in Canada. This issue, tho, is a bit scatter-shot. Things on fans and fandom, ancient sex manuals, and letting Stephen King call himself whatever writer he wants to.

TIMEFRAME #3 (August, 1980)

Evelyn Baker, 30 Snowcrest Ave., Willowdale, Ont., Canada m2k 2k7. 74 pages offset. Available for $3 plus $1 postage ($1.25 US).

A media-fiction fanzine. There is a market for those things but the editor hasn't found it, apparently, from the lettercol. Fans who aren't interested in media-based fan fiction tend to be pretty hostile to such zines. Galactica, Planet of the Apes, Star Wars and three unrelated stories. make up this issue.

KADATH #3 (November, 1980)

Francesco Cova, Corso Aurelio Saffi, 5/9. 16128 Genova, Italy. 60 pages A4 offset. Available for $4(US).

Half in English, half in Italian. This is a fantasy fanzine and spotlights Brian Lumley in this issue. With several new stories, bibliography, interview, etc., lavish interiors, Kadath is well worth the money.

RE KONG #2

Bruno Baccelli, Via Carriona, 79-54033 CARRARA, Italy. 8 pages A4 printed on one sheet offset. Available for the usual?

In English. And the first English-as-a-second-language zine I've seen that wasn't written in a deranged, forced faanish along style. I feel much relieved. An article on Dutch fandom, nuclear wastes and a conreport. A modest but enjoyable zine.

I gather that Brian Thurogood is a newspaper publisher in NZ, which explains the pro-mag style of Noumenon. There's news, letters, reviews, some good art and the occasional article like this issues "The Utopia/dystopia axis examined in 3 major novels." A good fanzine.

CONTINUUM BETA #3

Ragnar Fyvi, Bactrianus Enterprises, Solliveien 37, N 1370 ASKER, Norway. #1- 4 pg A4, mimeo. #2-12 pgs. #3- 4 pgs. Available for a show of interest to start.

C.B. is an attempt to write a novel by committee thru the mail. These three issues lay out the concept and discuss plots.

GNU DEAL #1

Ragnar Fyvi, address as above. Available for 5 NOK or trades. 6 pages A4 mimeo.

A strange concept for a zine; participating players send in "personal ads" sending notices and warning to various imaginary personas or other players. The point of this escapes me. Probably of interest to role-playing fans.

WAR OF THE WORLDS #1

Ragnar Fyvi (address as above.) 32 pages A4 mimeo. Available for letters of comment.

The lettercolumn to Ragnar's Zealot, the one zine he hasn't published this quarter. I must confess that this is the first zine in ages that I couldn't bring myself to read. Ragnar's sloppy layout, editing and editorial manderings are just too much to bear.

AIRWAVES #1 (January, 1981)

Alan White, 25155 Avenida Vizcaya, Homeland, CA 92348. 24 pages offset. Available for -- doesn't say.

Expensive looking zine with crowded but good-looking graphics. Contents includes a Arlin Dale Teeselink portfolio, a reprint of a Robert Bloch story, bits of old record covers and VCRs, editorial memoirs and a photo section of badly done nudes.

AMRA V2 #69 (January, 1981)

George Scithers, Box 8243, Philadelphia, PA 19101. 20 pages 6x10 offset, reduced print. Available for $1.

Next ish will be the 25th annish and is promised for June, with perhaps regular publication thereafter in a larger, more expensive size. This issue features an overview of the Conan movie and an excellent Dunsanyian story by Darrell Schweitzer. The movie piece is of interest not just because Amra is the original S&S fanzine but because its author, Bill Warren is a regular columnist for FANTASY NEWSLETTER, and I'm surprised that this didn't appear there. (Particularly since Warren's film columns always seemed unnecessary and doubly so since they only reviewed movies already released. For a newsletter on forthcoming books one would think he'd talk about forthcoming movies...) Lots of Roy Krenkle art.

AFTERWORDS #15 (October, 1980)

ART & STORY #1 (1976)

ART & STORY #2 (1976)

Jim Denney, P O Box 9124, Fresno, CA 93790. Afterwards - 6 pgs offset.

A&S #1 -- 48 pages offset. #2 -- 52 pgs offset. Available for 25¢ (afterwards) $2 for the ART&Story.

I've never understood how Christians could find The Theory of Evolution threatening to their religion but that's the lead article of AFTERWORDS, a news and commentary zine Denny publishes on occasions. (Actually not since Velikovsky has so much energy been spent denouncing a heretic theory.) A&S has two serials, a reprint of a 1903 L. Frank Baum novel, THE ENCHANTED ISLAND OF YEW and a comic strip THE BLACK STAR by Denny. #1 also features a couple articles about comics while #2 has a new story: by Alan Dean Foster, a reprint of C.S. Lewis' and articles on SPACE:1999 and Arthur C. Clarke.

BARYON #19 (Fall, 1980)

Barry R. Hunter, 8 Wakefield Pl., Rome, GA 30161. 20 pages mimeo. Available for the usual or 4/$5.

Lots of reviews of new books in short paragraph lengths

BENZINE #3

Ben Zuhl, 1224 Elmwood #1E, Evanston, Ill 60202. 28 pages xerox. Available for the usual.

So it's three years late. Andy Offutt gives his version of the origin of the Spayed Gerbil (anyone remember what that is?), Ted Reynolds foreshadows his recent Hugo nomination with this 1976 written satire of SPACE:1999. Mike Glicksohn muses on fandom and Bob Shaw's SEACON speech is reprinted (Quite good, too.) Nice art by Doug Rice and Phil Foglio.

#9 - 44 pages mimeo. #10 -- 54 pages mimeo & offset. Available for $1; 4/$2.50.

#9 concludes Jon Suter's survey of the treatment of the presidents in the comics. #10 is a big Modesty Blaise issue with a complete story (Take me to your Leader" reprinted.

CONIACS 7 (January, 1981)

By David Johnson, P O Box 435, Glenview, IL 60025. 30 pages offset. Available for $2 a copy.

self-declared semi-prozine with two stories, a paean to Bob Aspin; con listings; and a couple other columns. At $2 a copy (for about the same amount of wordage as this UoFan) it's really overpriced, and the material isn't very good.

CURFUDGEON #4 (October, 1980)

CURFUDGEON #5 (December, 1980)

Mike Horvat, 112 East Burnett St., Stayton, Ore. 97383. 4 pages digest-sized. Offset. Available for ?.

DASPORIA (December, 1980)

Bill Roeben, 2730 Superior St., Bellingham, WA 98225. 40 pages mimeo. Available for $1.50 or the usual.

THE DIAGONAL RELATIONSHIP 16 (January, 1981)

Arthur Hlavaty, 250 Coligni Ave., New Rochelle, NY 10801. #15 - 16pgs. #16 --14 pages reduced xerox. Available for the usual or $1.

#15 has a lot of stuff about writing and reviewing scattered thru an article purportedly reviewing Heinlein's novel. #16 has a lot of odds and ends oranzized in an imaginary diary.

DRACULA (February, 1980)

Lori Chapek-Carleton, editor. T'Kuntian Press, 5132 Jo-Don Dr., East Lansing, MI 48823. 128 pages reduced type, offset. Available for $8.73.

A Dracula fictionzine. Or perhaps a Frank Langella-zine. A couple longish stories, one a STAR WARS crossover, and lots of shorts and poems.

DYNAZINE #8

Eric Scalzi, 8 Palmer Dr., Canton, MA 02021. 40 pages half-legal. Offset, reduced print. Available for $1.

Why art ye text of thy fanzine misaligned and
ye print illegible,
oh small alien creature?

Jeepers, Mr.
SMOF, I can't ever seem to get the paper in my typewriter straight.

Getting thy paper in ye typing machine art not critical, inexperienced
one. I type mine own trufanzine text initially on 11 x 17-inch paper in two columns with 40
characters per line.

But I don't want a giant-size
fanzine.
8 1/2 x 11 is hard enough to handle
as it is.

No, no, naive neophyte, I xerox-reduce my pica-type originals to 85%, making it ye size of elite. If ye machine art clean and serviced, ye copy cometh out sharp and dark. So be it!

Goshwow,
a xerox!
It even has horns.

It's thrilling to watch
my personalzine take shape in your very own hands.

I mentally picture ye camera-ready copy of each page of my fanzine, allowing space for ye illos, and then cut out ye text accordingly. Damn, cut my finger again.

Is it true that the best parts of some fanzines end up in the round file, Mr. SMOF?

I align it on 8 1/2 x 11-inch paper placed over 1/4-inch graph paper illuminated from behind by a light table. My margins art 3/8 inch on top, 5/8 on ye bottom, 3/4 inside where ye staple will be, and 1/2 outside.
I tape it down with small squares of magic tape applied with ye x-acto knife to avoid ye telltale fingerprints.

Does "magic" mean
it's mischievous?

You have laid out the perfect fanzine - but,
but you can't be the

You don't even have

Gee, thanks, Mr.

FANNISH DRINKSH BOOK.

Suzi Stefl editor. 2001 Huron Parkway #12, Ann Arbor, MI 48104. 16 pages digest. Offset. Available for -- come to think of it, this may not be available or a revised edition is being planned. Released at Conclave this past year. A drink book, with illustrations of a multitude of drinks, some of which might actually be good.

FANTASY CALENDER 1901

Kennedy Poyser, 503 S. Sawyer, Olympia, WA 98501. 14 pages double-size. Offset. Available for $5.95.

A black and white calendar with 12 drawings from 10 artists. They're good to very good. And worth getting just for the art.

FANTASY COMMENTATOR #31 (Winter, 1981)

A. Langley Searles, 7 East 235th St., Bronx, NY 10470. 68 pages offset. Available for $3.

A handsomely produced if somewhat stogy sercon fanzine. Sam Moskowitz has a long article on the beginnings of SF, Searles continues his piece on Edward Lucas White's unpublished SF novel; reviews and a loccol finishes out the issue. Without accepting everything Moskowitz says about the precursors of SF, I found his article very interesting.

FANZINE DIRECTORY 3 (January, 1981)

Allan Beatty, P O Box 1906, Ames, IA 50010. 14 pages reduced print, offset. Available for $1.

A fiction magazine.

FUTURE FOCUS #12 (Fall, 1980)

Roger Reynolds, 1301 Bernard Ave., Findley Ohio 45840. 52 pages offset. Available for $2.50 or the usual.

Joe Kubert, one of the top artists in comics today runs a school and one of his students knows Roger so.... this issue was done up by the guys at Kubert's school. The art is very good and most of this issue is art - several strips and a couple portfolios; The text material is pretty so-so. Non-Kubert-student, Larry Tucker, 'explains' the origin of Uncle Albert.

GALLIFREY CHRONICLES #5 (October, 1980)

Steve Johnson, 26026 Newport, Warren, MI 48089. 52 pages offset. Available for $1.75.

The latest and best issue of this Dr. Who fanzine. Has a couple neat articles about the Doctor's enemies, a Troughton episode guide, a 16th/17th season episode guide and parts of four serials. Interesting reading for the Who fan. Steve also runs a Dr. Who newsletter and can put you in touch with many local Who clubs.

HAWAII #2 (Winter, 1980)

HOLIER THAN THOU #9 (January, 1981)

Marty Canter, 5263 River-ton Ave. Apt #1, North Hol-lywood, CA 91601. #8 - 54 pages #9 -- 54 pages mimeo. Available for the usual or $1.50.

Because of its size and regularity, H.T.T. has come to occupy a place near the top of the pile. It's one of the best zines currently appearing. #8 has a fine cover by Charlie Williams, a fine political satire by David Bratman, Sheldon Teitelbaum's adventures in Isreal, Gary Deindorfer's fanzine reviews (which are very thoughtful and in-sightful) and the aptly named Loc Ness Monster.

H.T.T. really survives on a large, active lettercol.

#9 has fine articles by

Lou Atkins, Darrell Schweitzer, Bruce D. Arthurs, Paul Skelton, Joseph Nicholas plus the lettercol.

BLESSED ARE THE FAN-EDS, FOR THEY

Catherine Mintz, 1810 South Rittenhouse Sq., Suite #1903, Phila-delphia, PA 19103. 16 pages digest-sized, offset. Available for ?

A chapbook printing one story and a portfolio. The story is by Lesley Lewis, the portfolio by Mintz.

INTERCEPTED Vol 4 #5

Kay Shapero, 728 S. Atlantic Blvd., Alhambra, CA 91803. 10 pages off-set. Available for some complicated scheme. Write to them, you'll prob-ably want a better explanation of what's this is all about.

"A limited membership zine published tri-weekly". Members ~~are~~ appar-ently required to supply a number of "ads" for each issue.

JANUS #18 (Winter, 1980)

SF, Box 1624, Madison, Wisc. 53701. 36 pages offset, reduced type. Available for $2 or the usual. 4/$6.

Subtitled "Becoming Aurora" as former co-editor Jan Bogstad is with-drawing the rights to that title. Janus is edited by a committee too large to individually mention. It's a feminist sercon clubzine, which is a contradiction in terms. Good stuff on post-holocaust themes in Feminist SF. Plus a NoreasconII report, book reviews, feminist small press reviews, letters and a really godawful cover. Recommended, tho'.

JUMEALX 8 (August, 1980)

Lynne Holdrom, P O Box 5, Pompton Lakes, N.J. 07442. 42 pages offset. Available for .. she doesn't say. She asks $3.54 for the previous issue so that might be what she wants, but Lynne is also talking about drop-ping this zine so who knows.

Previous reviews of this zine have been very glowing and this issue is really no different but in the long months between #7 and 8 I've come to reevaluate Darkover fandom. I find in this zine an almost overwhelming religiosity. I no longer sense that here are people sharing an interest in a good series of books, but are living a real cult.

JUFEAUX is a good zine about Darkover.

L.O.C.C.s #3 (Fall, 1980)

Jerry Alexander, 7311 McCormack Dr., Chattanooga, TN 37443. 24 pages Available for the usual or $1.

This includes a 4 page Stellar Fantasy Newsletter. TLG has turned into something of a genzine with articles on Polish fandom and F&SF's 31th anniversary issue, a short story, verus, fanzine reviews, book reviews and short bits from the editor. The printing is unusual in that while the covers are definitely offset, the inside pages are printed by mimeo (from reduced text) surprisingly without offset or showthru on light bond paper.

Lois Wickstrom, 1150 St Paul St., Denver, Co. 80206. #6 - 64 pages.
#7 -- 52 pages. offset reduced print. Available for #6 - $2.50 #7- $2.25.
A fictionzine devoted to "role-expanding science fiction and fantasy."
The fiction is uneven. Only liked one story in #6, but liked all three in #7. Tends to run some S&S in most issue. In her editorial in #7 Lois mentions expanding the editorial staff for RANDORA.

THE PRISONER PRIMER

The Green Done, 824 West 176th St., New York, NY 10033. 4 pages offset.
Available for 30¢ plus SASE.

An introduction to THE GREEN DONE magazine and club, which is for the TV series and other McGoonhan projects. TGD is $2 each or $7/year. Payable to Florence Hatcher.

RAZED CONSCIOUSNESS #4 (November, 1980)

Nancy A. Collins, (address see COAs) 10 pages mimeo with offset covers.
Available for the usual.

Personalzine. Matter and letters.

THE ROGUE RAVEN 30

Frank Denton, 14654-8th Ave. S., Seattle, WA 98166. 20 pages mimeo with offset covers. Available for editorial whim I suppose.

A personalzine and one of the better done ones. With good writing about an interesting selection of material. Trips and visits, a eulogy for Susan Wood, and letters. Well worth getting, no matter what Joseph Nicholas says.

RUNE 61 (Fall, 1980)

Lee Pelton and Carol Kennedy, editors. Rune, P O Box 2120, Loop Stn., Minneapolis, MN 55402. 34 pages mimeo with offset covers. Available for the usual and money to some amount.

The last issue for Pelton and Kennedy. A fine issue with an intelligent interview with C.J. Cherryh; John Bartelt (the new editor) on the Minn-stf's Milkcarton boat race; Jan Howard Finner blaming John Brunner for making him a fan and Carol talking about publishing zines.

RUNWAY 37 #6 (FALL, 1980)

Margaret Middleton, P O Box 9911, Little Rock, Ark 72219, 16 pages mimeo. Available for the usual or 30¢.

Runway 37 feels like a personalzine but features a number of contributors, Sandra Miesel, Jean Lamb, Samanda Jude, but perhaps because all talk about much the same thing, the cons they've gone to, the books they've read, it all tends to sound alike. Pleasant reading, fairly frequent zine.

RON SALOMON, 1014 Concord St., Framingham, MA 01701.

Lots of zines with lots of titles. Some of it slightly illegible, some of it very illegible.

THE SASPARILLA GAZETTE #5 (January, 1981)

Ernie Pullin, P O Box 724, Bonner, Montana 59823. 16 pages mimeo.
Available for $1.50. (1 sample for $1.)

A personalzine for a fairly political oriented fan. Most interesting for me was a reprint from Frederick Douglass's autobiography ("An American Slave").

SCIENCE FICTION MONITOR #4 (February, 1981)

Eddie Abel, 521 E. 14th Ave. #18, Denver, CO 80203. 46 pages mimeo with offset covers. Available for $1.

The publisher's goal seems to be to develop a network of dealers in SF for their mutual help but in the meantime is serializing his autobiography, PORNOGRAPHY: THE THREAT THAT NEVER WAS. Great stuff for Libertarians.

SCIENCE FICTION REVIEW #37 (Winter, 1980)

SCIENCE FICTION REVIEW #38 (Spring, 1981)

Richard E. Geis, P O Box 11408, Portland, Ore. 97211. 68 pages offset, reduced print. Available for $2. 4/$7. (US)

#37 has some replies to Chris Priest's "Outside the Whale" essay from #36, short fiction reviews, an interview with Robert Anton Wilson and the usual deluge of book reviews. An undistinguished issue.

#38 features more replies to Priest, essays on SF, by Barry Malzberg (some of his best writing, I'd say.) A String of Days from Gregory Benford (excellent personal writing); Larry Niven; John Brunner (on his travels in Eastern Europe); an interview with Jack Williamson plus the usual hordes of reviews. A better issue. In #37 Orson Scott Card speaks out against the efforts at this year's worldcon to , in some way, disqualify SFR, Locus and Starship from the fanzine Hugo. Card, displaying a slight understanding of the situation, pleads for the free market, that SFR, et al win their Hugos for being better than the others. And #38 Geis cries a few tears about how much he suffers for being a full-time fan, that he could be making much, much more money writing porno full-time.

If SFR were the best zine being published today all this monkeying with the Hugo rules would be shameful but SFR is only good at what it does and many other zines do other things with much more flair and skill than Geis will ever muster. Zines like Twill Odu, Genre Plat, SF Commentary, or Chat. But these zines can't compete adequately with SFR because Geis is a professional fan and SFR is a professional fanzine. The question isn't whether Geis pays contributors or makes a living off SFR, except in that in making a living off SFR, Geis is able to put more time into his zine than other fans are able to. The 8 hours a day the rest of us put into amundane job that supports our fan addiction, Geis puts into his fanzine. And only by working full time on it is he able to produce as large and widely-circulated zine as he does. This is the crux of the matter: Geis gets nominated every year because few of the 1000 or so nominators have heard any zine except SFR, and he has a circulation of 2500 because he can work full time at it. Aside from Porter and Charlie Brown, Geis is competing against hobbyists who can devote only a few hours a week, a few hundred dollars a year on their hobby. And that is hardly fair competition.

End of diatribe.

SELDON'S PLAN #47 (December, 1980)

Brian Earl Brown, editor. Wayne Third Foundation, Box 102 SCB, Wayne State University, Detroit, MI. 48202. 30 pages reduced offset. Available for the usual or $1.

Essays from Eric Mayer, Cy Chauvin (on Canadian SF), Nigal Sellers (on Ian Watson) and a portfolio by local fan, Mike Kucharski. Much better looking issue than last time if I do say so.

SF COMMENTARY #60/61 (October, 1980)

Bruce Gillespie, GPO 5195AA, Melbourne, Vic 3001 Australia. 32 pages reduced print, offset. Available for $3 (US).

A letters issue of the best LitCrit zine around. Long letters from LeGuin, Lem, Aldiss, Chris Priest, Franz Rottensteiner, Disch, Lee Harding and others, plus assorted reviews by various people. Elegantly typeset by Bruce's typesetting service (tho with a bit too much use of journalistic 'dropped headings'). Altogether a highly recommended zine.

SHANGRI L'AFFAIRES #77

Marty Cantor & Mike Glyer, editors. LASF, Inc. 11513 Durbank Blvd., North Hollywood, CA 91601. 22 pages mimeo. Available for the usual or $1.

An article from the late Ted Johnstone about fandom is printed, Len Moffatt remembers more Shaggy people, Paula Lieberman reviews books, Alan Prince Winston writes some faan fiction that I found opaque, and editorials from Marty and Mike. (Mostly about the troubles getting this issue together). Printing is unexpectedly poor. But overall an interesting fanzine.

SOUTH OF THE MOON #18

H.J.N.Andruschak, P O Box 606, La Canada-Flintridge, CA 91011. 11 pages xerox. Availability uncertain.

This appears to be a pre-print of SOTM in perparation for its appearance in Glycer's FILE 770 Annual. SOTM does for apas what Wofan does for fanzines. Andy does not list any of the secret, invitational or otherwise restricted apas, which cut his list considerably this time. Andy is also handing over editorship of SOTM to Denys Howard, 1013 N. 36th, Seattle, WA 98103.

SPACE AND TIME #58 (January, 1981)

SPACE AND TIME #59 (April, 1981)

Gordon Linzner, 138 West 70th St. Apt #4-B, New York, NY 10023. 60 pages offset, reduced print. Available for $2. Digest-sized. Quarterly.

I admit, it's embarrassing to have two quarterly issues to review in one issue of the supposedly quarterly Wofan. S&T is a fiction zine, one of the oldest and best. Many of the stories being near-professional in quality. Stories range from SF to fantasy to comedy. But no faan fiction (parodies involving fans.) #58 has a good fantasy by Charles de Lint, and #59 has one by Joseph Sherman.

STARSHIP #40 (Fall, 1980)

Andrew Porter, P O Box 4175, New York, NY 10017. 52 pages offset, small type, color cover. Available for $2.50.

Very professional-looking fanzine, better than most magazines. Susan Wood writes about Kate Wilhelm. Diane Duane is interviewed, Harlan Ellison's introduction to Whelan's WONDERWORKS is printed for the first time (but Kelly Fress was right to reject it originally) and Fred Pohl continues his column. Lots more.

STEAM TUNNEL QUARTERLY #6 (Spring-Summer, 1980)

Dan Helmick, Michigan State University Science Fiction Society, MSU, Lansing, MI., 40 pages reduced offset. digest-sized. Available for free.

A number of short stories by club members. No real address either, found it at an Oakland University one-day convention. Neatly printed.

TELOS #3 (November, 1980)

Gary Farber, Patrick & Teresa Nielsen Hayden & Fred Haskell, 4712 Fremont Ave. N., Seattle, WA 98103. 76 pages mimeo & offset. Available for the usual (including weird postcards) or $1.

What can one say against a fanzine that has Terry Carr, Dick Berger, John D. Berry, Jay Kinney and Gary Farber? And is wonderfully designed by Fred Haskell. Farber in particular talks about how fandom is becoming increasingly mundane. The others mentioned are simply brilliant writers. Teresa writes about her efforts to get excommunicated by the Normans.

THIS HOUSE #9 (July, 1980)

THIS HOUSE #10 (December, 1980)

John A. Purcell, 2713-2nd Ave. So #307, Minneapolis, MN 55408. #9 -- 34 pages. #10 -- 22 pages, xerox. Available for the usual or $1.

Friendly genzine/personalazine. #9 features a cute article from Jan (No relation) Brown about Minneapolis' efforts to get everyone to move there. #10 has a Non-worldcon report from John (with fine Ken Fletcher illos).

TIGHTBEAM (September, 1980)

TIGHTBEAM (November, 1980)

TIGHTBEAM (January, 1981)

Lynne Holdrom, editor. NSF, P O Box 5, Pompton Lakes, N.J. 07442.

(Sept. -- 30 pages mimeo and offset. Nov. -- 32 pages reduced type, offset, half-legal size. Jan -- 32 pages offset, reduced type, half-legal size. Available for membership. See the National Fantasy Fan for details.

Letterzine for the NSF. Generally pretty lively discussions.

UNCLE ALBERT'S ELECTRIC TALKING FANZINE #1

Larry Tucker, 2018 Whitewood, Ann Arbor, MI 48104. 60 minute cassette tape. Available for $2, exchange of blank 60 minute tape.

Larry's talking about doing an audio tape fanzine for some time and now he's finally gone and done it. Production is very good, I'd dare say professional in quality. Contents includes an introduction; a recording of comment (ROC); Spider Robinson's GOM speech from Confusion 1979; a dramatization, "Sub-Space Scraps"; an interview with Tad Reynolds, a commercial for "Lace Books" and some filk songs. The Uncle Albert stuff is pretty fun. The other pieces vary in interest. Larry says he plans to do more dramatizations.

WAM #7 (October, 1980)

Denys Howard, 1013 N. 36th St, Seattle, WA 98103. 62 pages mimeo. Available for the usual or $1.

Four years in the waiting.... It's been so long that I don't know what to say. Denys is deeply involved with feminism and marxism, which shows in the tripartite review of LeGuin's THE DISPOSSESSED. (Sorry, 2 reviews and one interview.) The rest of the issue consists of some fanzine reviews and lots of letters from the distant past. WAM was very lively in its prime. Denys promises to publish more often. My fingers are crossed.

THE WRETCH TAKES TO WRESTLING #5 (September, 1980)

Cheryl Cline, 1621 Detroit Ave. #23, Concord, CA 94520. 24 pages mimeo and rubber stamp. Available for the usual.

God Grief, professional wrasslin' taken seriously! (as entertainment). Cheryl, Eric Mayer and Brute Tornley all get into the act. Fun reading despite (or because of) its subject. Recommended.

WSFANAC #5 (1980)

WSFANAC #6 (1981)

Avedon Carol, 4409 Woodfield Rd., Kensington, MD 20795. #5 - 6 pgs; #6 - 4 pgs xerox. Available for WSFA and a few others.

Amusing personalazines from a very talented writer. #5 turns into a tribute to John Lennon. #6 prints some Astral League news from Dave Langford.

(sic)

XENOLITH 14

Bill Bowers, 2466 Harrison Ave., Cincinnati, OH 45211. 22 pages mimeo. Available for $1 or whim.

A personalazine with letters and involved comments, Dottie Stef's SPACE-CON II speech and natter. Bill is giving new meaning to the word 'esoteric'.

YAFIRO #250 & 251

Juanita & Buck Coulson, Rte 3, Hartford City, Ind. 47348. #250 -48 pages
#251- 52 pages mimeo with some offset. Available for 75¢ or 5/83, but Buck mentions that this special issue will be priced slightly higher.

#250 is a lengthy trip report (with photos) of the Coulson's trip to England in 1979 for Season (with sightseeing added). An enjoyable report. #251 is a regular issue, if somewhat lengthy. Buck and Juanita do columns, Dave Locke talks about the FAAns, letters and more book reviews from Buck than most people read in a year.

Eric Lindsay, 6 Hillcrest Ave., Faulconbridge, NSW 2776, Australia.
18 pages quarto, 2 pages A4 mimeo. Available for whim.

Eric used to publish Geg before starting EBL, which turned out to be the same zine under a different title. Now he's gone back to using the old title(and numbering). A variety of interesting letters, a couple pages of diary enteries and finally an introduction for Medvention 1 con members. A very disorganized zine but interesting reading nonetheless.

EDITORIAL

This may seem a strange place to put an editorial since one tends to find them at the front of magazines. Then again, don't you find editorials-at-the-front-of-a-zine rather ... conventional?

In any case I'd like to welcome you to the 18/19th issue of Wofan. It's a little late I know and I've tried hard to get it out less late than this. Most fanzines don't try to stick to a regular publishing schedule because they know they can't or won't stick to it. If slowly at times, at least inevitable another issue of Wofan emerges.

There are a lot of new subscribers this time. I'd like to welcome you and explain a little bit of what Wofan is all about. The Whole Fanzine Catalog is, properly, a catalog of available fanzines than a zine of fanzine reviews. In each issue I list all the new zines that have arrived since the last issue with some description of the zine and its availability to give you some idea of what each zine is like. Depending on who you listen to, my comments about these fanzines are either too generous or too harsh/subjective.

In addition to the zine listings I've been collecting all notices of changes of addresses listed in these zines for repeating in one large list each issue. Also, as time and space permit I try to run features of interest to the fanzine editor, such as STALKING THE PERFECT FANZINE and a column of longer, in-depth fanzine reviews and analysis. Also letters, associated items of interest. David Thayer's centerfold this time is one such item, and the annual Wofan Poll is another.

Wofan is available for trade or subscription. I'll trade 2 for 1 with any fanzine. Two copies of Wofan for one of yours. or -- two issues. of Wofan, I should say. Most of my mailing list consists of fan eds I'm trading with. Subscriptions go to those who don't publish, or don't publish often enough but are still interested in keeping up with the field. Subscription rates are listed on page 2. If it weren't for the subscriptions I wouldn't be able to continue Wofan. A fanzine is an expensive hobby. I deeply appreciate all the people who send money that underwrites the production of this zine.

Some terms used in Wofan perhaps should be explained. "The usual" means that a zine is available in exchange for your zine in trade, a letter of comment or contribution of art or an article. A loc isa letter of comment. "Thisish" = This issue. The rest you can figure out easily enough.

I was going to do a "Stalking" on ~~placing~~ one's fanzine, and a column of Hugo nominations, an appeal for the WoFan Poll plus a couple other things but I see that I haven't the space left to do everything, and for the Hugo Tout Sheet, it's much too late anyway. The next issue of WoFan won't be out till after July some time. As you can see from ~~page 33~~

Detroit fandom is doing another Autoclave and this year I talked myself into being its chairman. My time is going to be pretty limited between now and then so I'll make no pretense of trying to get WoFan out till after the convention. I hope you will bear with me during this six-month hiatus. Better yet, perhaps you could come to the convention. We're trying to have a real fanzine fans convention... but read the ad.

There won't be a WoFan poll this year. Response has always been low and it only duplicated the work of other polls. I urge you to support either Mike Glycer's poll or the FANW awards. Details aren't in the ~~FANW~~ awards, tho I understnad this year sees many reforms to the awards. Better yet, support and propagandize for the Hugo fan awards. 1000 people vote for those awards but most have little idea of what is available in fandom. Tell people what's out there! Get them to vote for fanzine fans!

MORE THINGS FOR SALE

17AD SCIENTIST'S DIGEST. MSD is the genzine I've done over the past several years. Columnists include Mary Long, Eric Moyer, Sam Long, Ian Williams, etc. (i.e. ye ed.) There's plenty of experimentation with color mimeography and on the whole I can't recommended my fanzine too highly. Issues #5, 6, and 7 are available for $1 each.

The Derek Carter Alphabet Coloring Book. Readers of Algol or Thrust fanzines perhaps remember the great art of Derek Carter (HEAVY METAL, too) Here are 26 full page illustrations, great puns on each letter of the alphabet, printed on good quality of paper suitable for coloring or framing. A great gift for friends, and 50¢ from each zine goes to support TAFF and DUFF, worthy fan funds that encourage internationalism in fandom. The Derek Carter Coloring Book is available for $1.00 plus 60¢ for postage.

REHUPA -- the Robert E. Howard United Press Association is an amateur press association for the fantasy fan. Originally devoted to Howard's Conan, REHUPA now welcomes all fantasy fans: fans of Jack Vance, Robert Bloch, Clark Ashton Smith, Lord Dunsany and more. For more information send an SASE to Brian Earl Brown, 16711 Burt Rd. #207, Detroit, MI 48219. Or for a sample copy of one of REHUPA's mailings send $1.

MISHAP -- The Michigan Society of (Hapless) Amateur Press is an apa for the general interest fan. MISHAP is a friendly, demented apa that talks about everything from love and monogamy to mooses and drunken spacemen punch. For more information send an SASE to Denise M. Brown, 16711 Burt Rd. #207, Detroit, MI 48219. Or $1 for a sample mailing.

[Can this couple be saved from hyperfanac?]

SELDON'S PLAN is the fanzine of the Wayne Third Foundation, an SF club of the Wayne State University here in Detroit. I've recently reconstituted a number of issues by xeroxing the missing pages of incomplete copies. These reconstituted fanzines are going for 50¢ each. Each issue is a highly entertaining mix of serious and critical writings about science fiction from people like James Olish, Doug Garbour, Cy Chauvin and many others. Issues available include #30, 40, 42 and 45.

Enough of selling things. MAILING CODES. These should be explained. Basically your address label will have to the right of your name either a number, a "T" with a number, or a "C". The plain number means you are a subscriber and the number is your last issue. A "T" means we trade and the number is your last issue. "C" means contributor's copy. An "X" means this is your last issue unless you do something. See you in 6 months. G&D,

((Changes of addresses are collected from all the fanzines reviewed in this issue of WoFon.))

Autoclave 5

The Convention that says "What, me publish a Fanzine?"

This years AUTOCLAVE boldly sets out to outdo last years' Autoclave as The Fanzine Convention. We have as our GUEST OF HONOR -- Howard DeVore! A member of first fandom, member of FAPA, member of SAPS (with a publication in every SAPS mailing since 1952!), member of Misfits and much more!

In addition to our GoH we'll have a Mimeo Room, seminars on fanzines, A new edition of Fannish Feud -- with better answers! A birthday party on the plaza, movies and much much more.

For more information write to Autoclave c/o Gregg Trend, 16594 Edinborough Rd., Detroit, MI 48219. Huckster's: write to Gregg. Artists: write to John Benson, 11719 Beaconfield, Detroit, MI 48224.

So reserve the weekend of July 24, 25 and 26th 1981 for AUTOCLAVE 5 -- the fannish convention.
